IMSHUR

Consent should be;

INFORMED

Define your terms; "Hook up," "Sex" and "It" can mean different things to different people. If you can't talk about it, you shouldn't be doing it.

MUTUAL

Equality is the key. People too far below your age range, development, mentality or authority level cannot legally give consent.

SOBER

If you are too drunk to drive a car, you are too drunk to drive your genitals. Drunk, high or sleeping people can't give consent.

HONEST

True consent cannot be manipulated. A "Yes" after twenty minutes of whining, guilt, bugging or begging is not actually a "Yes". Pretending to be (or willing to do) something you aren't is not consent.

UNDERSTOOD

Consent is not just about getting a "Yes." Consent also means people get to say "No." Not hearing "No" does not equal a "Yes." If you are unsure, just ask.

REVISITED

Consent is a process, not a goal. For the next level, the next day, the next date...you need to ask again (yes, even if they've let you do stuff before). Giving consent once, does not mean they can't say "No" later.

IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PERSON INITIATING CONTACT TO OBTAIN CLEAR CONSENT. IT IS THE OTHER PERSON'S RESPONSIBILITY TO LET THEM KNOW IF THEY HAVE IT OR NOT.
